

July 2, 2007

I recently attended both the Auction Analysis and Auction Field day with McGrath Estate Agents Chief Auctioneer Scott Kennedy-Green. I found the Analysis day to be enormously beneficial in fine tuning and improving my own Auctioneering performance. Scott was honest and straightforward in giving me feedback and advice to allow me to go to the next level as an Auctioneer. The day is well structured and provides participants with the benefits of Scotts passion and experience as one of the countries finest auctioneers.
